The University is not responsible for any damage or loss of any vehicle or its contents by reason of fire, theft, vandalism, or any other cause. By my submission of this application, I acknowledge and agree as follows:

- I agree to release and forever discharge President and Fellows of Harvard College and its officers, employees and governing boards from any legal liability in the event of injury, property damage, or loss, and I waive any claim I may have, now or later, in respect of injury, property damage, or loss arising out of or relating to parking at the University
- I agree to observe all rules and regulations for University parking as from time to time are in force (including all rules regarding fines, fees, and appeal procedures) published at <http://www.transportation.harvard.edu/parking>
- I understand if I wish to cancel parking, IRS regulations on pretax payroll deductions prohibit a refund except in limited circumstances if I am terminating employment
- Harvard requires employees to give at least two weeks' notice of cancellation of parking privileges
- I understand that all amounts not paid when due may be charged to my student term bill (for students)
- I understand that this is only an application and that no parking privileges are granted or implied unless and until this application is formally accepted by Harvard University Parking Services and a parking permit is issued to the applicant
- I understand that my eligibility for parking is based on my University affiliation and that the University reserves the right to relocate or cancel my parking privileges with or without cause at any time
